

DWIGHT ROSS JR. / Staff

TALES on the crypt

Visual artist Stephanie Anne Johnson chose Oakland Cemetery as the site for tonight's premiere of "We Speak," a slide show on the lives of black women in Atlanta. The program, part of the Arts Festival of Atlanta, will be projected against the side of a mausoleum. See article, Page C6.